

Harnessing the full potential of Tertiary Forest Education Globally

Thursday, 5th of May 2022, 10:00-11:30

A first look at the key findings and recommendations of the largest global forest education study to date and the latest digital innovations in forest education, followed by a panel discussion of key stakeholders in tertiary forest education globally.

Moderator: Daniel Boehnke, IUFRO Headquarters

Speakers: Gerardo Segura Warnholtz; Mika Rekola; Panel; Sheam Satkuru

Agenda

1. Welcome by Gerardo Segura Warnholtz, FAO
2. Presentation of the Global Report on Forest Education – Mika Rekola, University of Helsinki
3. Digital Innovations in Forest Education
 - Online course on Legal and Sustainable Supply Chains (LSSC) – Sheam Satkuru, ITTO
 - forestra – Daniel Boehnke, IUFRO
4. Panel discussion: Recognising local and indigenous/diverse knowledge in tertiary education needs
 - The broader perspective on tertiary education – Bernard Combes, UNESCO
 - Curricula from the teachers' perspective – Sandra Rodriguez, Universidad Autonoma de Chihuahua
 - Curricula from the students' perspective – Annie Biju, IFSA Coordinator – IFSA IUFRO JTF
 - Linking tertiary education with local knowledge and needs – Maria Noel Ngoddo, RECOFTC
 - Recognising needs of local communities and producers in tertiary education – Glenn Galloway, University of Florida
5. Further interaction between the audience and the panel
6. Closing remarks by Sheam Satkuru, ITTO

